TREVOR CHARLTON)

MOTION TO CONTINUE SENTENCING AND DATE FOR FILING
OBJECTIONS TO THE PRESENTENCE REPORT

Defendant, Trevor Charlton, moves to continue his sentencing, which is presently scheduled for March 11, 2008, for approximately eight weeks until May 5, 2008, or another date thereafter that is convenient for the court. He further moves that the date by which he must file objections to the presentence report be moved to three weeks prior to the sentencing. As grounds for this motion, counsel states that there are voluminous records which need to be collected which are material to sentencing and she needs additional time to review all of this material. Counsel also needs additional time to research the guideline issues and adequately prepare for sentencing. The Probation department has ascertained that defendant, who is 32 years old, is facing a guideline sentence of 235-293 months (19 years 7 months - 24 years 5 months) and a minimum mandatory sentence of 180 months (15 years). Defense counsel requests that the sentencing be continued in order that the court will be as fully informed about the defendant as possible prior to sentencing.

The government by Assistant United States Attorney Robert Richardson assents to this motion.
